Information about protection of an adjoining owner under the Building Act 1993 in relation to proposed protection work

In accordance with section 92 of the Building Act 1993, at any time after this notice is given to the adjoining owner, the relevant building surveyor must make available to the adjoining owner, on request, for inspection, without charge, any plans, drawings and specifications of the proposed building work in the possession or control of the relevant building surveyor. The relevant building surveyor's name and contact details are on page 1 of this notice.

If the proposed protection work is agreed to by the adjoining owner or determined as being appropriate by the relevant building surveyor under section 87(1) of the Building Act 1993 or by the Building Appeals Board under section 141 of the Building Act 1993 (as the case requires), the owner must—

- (a) before the commencement of any protection work—
 - (i) ensure that a contract of insurance is in force in accordance with section 93 of the Building Act 1993 against damage by the protection work to the adjoining property and other liabilities described in that section; and
 - (ii) make a full and adequate survey of the adjoining property in accordance with section 94 of the Building Act 1993; and
- (b) pay to an adjoining owner all costs and expenses necessarily incurred by the adjoining owner in assessing proposed protection work and in supervising the carrying out of protection work in relation to an adjoining property in accordance with section 97 of the Building Act 1993; and
- (c) compensate an adjoining owner or an adjoining occupier for inconvenience, loss or damage suffered by the adjoining owner or adjoining occupier in connection with the carrying out of protection work in accordance with section 98 of the Building Act 1993 or an order of the Building Appeals Board under section 159 of that Act.
